Job Mobility, Cross-Border cooperation, Cohesion and Resilience

December 16th 2021
10:00 a.m – 12:30 a.m

Euradria Project Manager & Eures Adviser

The lead partner of the Euradria Project is the Friuli Venezia Giulia Autonomous Regione (RAFG), with its General Directorate for Employment, Training, Education and Family. The General Directorate carries out various activities within the labour market, including the preparation and promotion of innovation and development, as, for example, in the fields of employment policy and services, active labour market policies and training.

Through the Euradria project it deals with border mobility within the cross border between Fvg and Slovenia. Fundamental to EURADRIA, the Directorate also provides the planning of interventions in the areas of competence financed with EU, national and regional resources, ensuring the implementation of adequate management and control systems of the interventions themselves.

Within the Euradria Project, Informest is an affiliated body of the Lead Partner RAFG and is in charge of communication and dissemination activities.

Deputy Head of Unit – EMPL E1:

Labour Mobility, Public Employment Services, ELA

EU employment and social policies bring practical benefits to citizens, for example, in finding a job, moving to another Member State for work or other reasons, upgrading skills, etc.

In partnership with national authorities, social partners, civil society organisations and other stakeholders, the Directorate-General addresses challenges linked to globalisation, the ageing of Europe's population and changing social realities.

Examples of the areas in which we are active include support for:

- > More and better jobs through the European Employment Strategy (which brings national policies closer in this field) and the European Social Fund.
- > Free movement of workers and coordination of social security schemes.
- > Social inclusion.

Legal Advisor & member of the stakeholder group,
ETUC

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) aims to ensure that the EU is not just a single market for goods and services, but is also a Social Europe, where improving the wellbeing of workers and their families is an equally important priority. The European social model – until the onset of the crisis – helped Europe to become a prosperous, competitive region with high living standards.

General Secretary of the Adriatic Ionian Euroregion EUSAIR

The EU Strategy for the Adriatic and Ionian Region (EUSAIR) is a macro-regional strategy adopted by the European Commission and endorsed by the European Council in 2014. The strategy aims at creating synergies and fostering coordination among all territories in the Adriatic-Ionian Region (Italy, Croatia, Slovenia, Greece, Albania, Montenegro, Bosnia Herzegovina and Serbia).

The general objective of the EUSAIR is to promote economic and social prosperity and growth in the region by improving its attractiveness, competitiveness and connectivity. The Strategy plays an important role in promoting the EU integration of Western Balkans.

It is built on 4 thematic pillars: Blue growth, Connecting the region, Environmental quality, Sustainable tourism.

EGTC GO IT/SLO

EGTC GO is an Italian public authority with legal personality, created with the aim of pinpointing and tackling the shared challenges and to make the entire cross-border area more competitive and more attractive.

Thanks to EGTC GO, the three municipalities involved in this project (Gorizia, Nova Gorica and Šempeter-Vrtojba) can benefit from the possibility to:

- > shape a shared strategy of urban development
- > bring forth the needs of the three communities through an Assembly of representatives and thus avoiding any of the three cities to have a predominant role
- > capitalize the outcomes of past cooperation and preserving continuity
- > operate across the entire cross-border area regardless of municipal borders.

General Secretary Association of European Border Regions/Funder member of the European Cross- Borders Citizens'Alliance

The European Cross-Border Citizens' Alliance was launched in 2020. It is an initiative that aims to better the life of European citizens living in the EU's border regions.

The European Cross-Border Citizens' Alliance has multiple stakeholders; these are the:

- > European Committee of the Regions
- > Association of European Border Regions (AEBR)
- > Mission Opérationnelle Transfrontalière (MOT)
- > Central European Service for Cross-border Initiatives (CESCI)

The internal border regions cover 40% of the EU's territory, accounting for 30% of its population (150 million people) and hosting almost 2 million cross-border commuters.
